Children and Family Ministry July & August Opportunities to Journey in Faith

Wherever you go this summer, God goes with you and your church does, too!

This summer we are exploring new models and formats of ministry as we plan for multiple fall contingencies. F.R.O.G. (Forever Relying On God) has long been the motto of both A Joyful Noise Preschool and Children's Ministry. Just as the frog is able to thrive on both water and on land, children's ministry must be amphibious—able to thrive both online and in person as we are able.

In the following pages, you will find a wide array of faith formation opportunities and formats: online only, DIY (asynchronous), and hybrid in-person (at home) and online. Our Fall schedule will be shaped by the feedback and information we receive in July. We are developing and beta testing an online platform, CONNECT, as a one stop-shop for classes, community, and content.

One of the gifts of online ministry is that you and your family can join us from wherever you travel this summer and beyond. Please journey with us in July & August. Please share your honest feedback about how we can continue to nurture and care for your families.

Grace and peace,

Christine Hides

An anti-racism discussion on Raising White Kids by Jennifer Harvey —Christine Hides

This is fourth in a series of study groups. As lament over the death of George Floyd has sparked a public conversation in our nation about racial injustice and inequality, a collective awakening and arising begins at Kenilworth Union. We would like to invite you to participate in the work of anti-racism. We don't expect this work to take place overnight: it will happen over the long haul, but we know that we need to begin now.

Artful Gratitude Journaling—Greta Connor & Laurel Lien

Nothing can “turn your frown upside down” like keeping a gratitude journal! Particularly during these times of uncertainty and difficulty, reminding yourself of God’s gifts can be quite healing and helpful. We will explore ways to include art in your journal, things (that are not things) for which we are grateful, and daily color themes to prompt you with new ideas! Sharing your gratitude journal experience with someone in your family can be rewarding! Adults are welcome to participate!

Essentials: Any paper notebook plus pens, markers, colored pencils, crayons, or watercolor paints. Plan to write in your gratitude journal every day for two weeks for about 15 minutes each day.

Awake to God in Nature—Katie Snipes Lancaster

Whether it is on the porch just outside your front door, taking a deep breath and listening, or going on the most challenging hike you’ve ever been on, there is so much room for us to experience God when we are outdoors, under the wide open canopy of the sky, rain or shine, sunlight or moonlight, paying attention to the earth and all that is alive around us. Paying attention to the earth builds empathy and helps us to grow closer to God. We will explore ways to meet God in nature, including activities to do at home, on a walk around your neighborhood, or out on a hiking trail.

Essentials: Time to spend outdoors. The ability to plan at least one longer outdoor adventure that suits your family’s abilities and interests. Paper and pencil to write or doodle what you notice.

At Home with God—Christine Hides, Janelle Wood, & Diana Connolly

Service is one way we follow Jesus’ command to love our neighbors. We will use our Zoom time to learn about the work of Kenilworth Union’s outreach partner, Humble Design, and organize a project to support their mission to create welcoming homes for those emerging from homelessness. Participants will work on their service projects at home between Zoom sessions.

Openness to learning about the challenges of homelessness and willingness to work with others on a drive or fundraiser. Two–three hours per week to work on the service project. Parent/adult support may be needed to deliver donated items to Winnetka or assist with the fundraiser.
