Repeat basic truths
Say things like: "I can trust God no matter what." "I need to make the wise choice." "I can treat others the way I want to be treated."

Purchase a kid's Bible
Find one that is made for kids with full text in a readable translation.

Talk about the Bible
Say things like: "The Bible has two parts, the Old Testament and the New Testament."

Read the Bible together
Use the index or digital tools to look up passages.

Share the story of when you first trusted Jesus
Talk about what salvation means to you.

Provide opportunities to serve friends and family

Pray for them while you are with them
And ask how you can pray for them.

Memorize scripture together
Ask things like: "Have you read anything in the Bible that means a lot to you right now?"

Share personal faith stories
Talk about how the 66 books of the Bible connect to tell one story

Serve your church or community together

Don't be shocked by hard questions
Respond with things like: "I'm glad you asked me." "I'm not sure, but we can find out."

Share about some of your doubts or struggles and how you handle those

Prioritize a weekly small group
Connect them to an adult who shows up every week to encourage their faith.

Purchase a youth Bible
Find one that is made for teenagers in a readable translation with helpful guides.

Ask questions that help them personalize faith
Ask things like: "What do you think?" "How is that true in your own life?"

Pray for them
Even if they don't pray with you.

Ask questions that help them personalize faith
Ask things like: "What do you think?" "How is that true in your own life?"

Support their faith community
Ensure they are connected to a consistent leader and group of peers.

Empower them to serve weekly in the church or community
That means you will probably drive them.

Encourage devotional habits
Help them discover when and how they connect with God best.

Be transparent
Talk about the ups and downs of your own faith journey.

Welcome questions
Don't always give answers.

Encourage them with scriptural insights
Relate scripture to their present circumstances.

Demonstrate grace, love, and forgiveness
It will be the most convincing argument you can make for a loving God.

Encourage them to participate in a mission trip

Talk about how you've seen God at work in their life

Ask how you can pray for their future
Talk about the role of a local faith community
And collaborate on a plan to keep them connected.

TURN THESE DIALS

SO EVERY KID WILL REMEMBER . . .

PRESCHOOL

God made me.
God loves me.
Jesus wants to be my friend forever.

ELEMENTARY

I can trust Jesus
no matter what.
I need to make the wise choice.
I should treat others the way
I want to be treated.

MIDDLE SCHOOL

I will love God because He will never stop loving me.
I will follow Jesus because He knows me better than I know myself.
I will live out God's story so others can know who Jesus is.

HIGH SCHOOL

I'm created to pursue a relationship with my Creator.
I trust what Jesus did to transform who I need to become.
I exist to demonstrate God's love to those around me.
